OAK CITY BRIEFS.

——Moses L. Holmes, Esq., of Salisbury, is in the city.

——Several farmers in this county have planted corn since the 4th of July.

——There are two Ikes on the radical ticket, but nothing has been said yet of Mrs. Partington.

——Turtle soup and stone crabs at that Prince of Restaurateurs, W. R. Pepper's. Families furnished.

——The thermometer has for ten days stood at not less than one hundred in the insurance office of P. F. Pescud.

——Tom Purnell spoke one of the same speeches last night that gave Pool the State in 1874 by an overwhelming majority.

——Capt. C. B. Denson left yesterday to attend the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Western Insane Asylum. The architect will go up to-day.

——The two Greensboro hotelists, McAdoo of the McAdoo House, and Benbow of the Benbow House, spent last week with their madams at the Yarboro House.

——Johnnie McDonald was promised by the Rads Elector of this District, but Johnnie says that men's promises in these days are "all in a horn," and a Strayhorn at that.

——We are pained to announce the death of Mr. John W. Adams, the father of our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Len. H. Adams. He died on yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at his residence, 15 miles below this city, in the 66th year of his age. He was one of Wake County's most estimable citizens.

——Hezekiah Lowe in this county is a grown negro man twenty-three years of age and has never walked a step or even stood up on his feet since the day he was born. His body is stout and well framed and his height is about five feet and eight inches but his legs are not much larger than a man's wrist.

——Col. Young flushed his maiden speech for Congress last night in front of the Courthouse. A tub of tar lit up the middle of the street and just about a corn-shucking pile of negroes did the bawling and screeching. The Colonel is a fine speaker and a pity it is to have his voice wasted. By the time he walks over the track with Joe Davis he will become as quieted as a weaned child.

——Judge Sammy Watts closed the performance in yesterday's convention by cutting more antics than the wild inhabitant of the cocoa tree. He stuck both thumbs under his armpits and grinned to the ragged edge of his jawbone teeth as he squatted and leaped about the room. He then closed his speech with a song and dance, and the convention adjourned.

——"I'll bet five hundred dollars it rains to-morrow," said an old gent yesterday, as he leaned against a lamp post, watching the convention crowd. Four or five gentlemen [illegible] lies are suffering with the [illegible] ered around and asked him why he said so. "Because," said he, "you never saw a big crowd of negroes in town but what it's as sure to rain the next day, as killin' a black snake." So look out for rain.

——The happiest man in town was old Mr. Council who came in yesterday with chickens and eggs from Chatham county. He had been sick the week before and naturally concluded the whole town had heard of it, and as he drove up Hargett Street and the merchants to get his trade, all ran to the door and exclaimed, "How are you, Mr. Council?" the old man answered as fast as he could, "I'm a heap better than I was last week." It has now passed into a saying when a candidate approaches with his hand extended, to sing out thirty yards in advance; "I'm a heap better than I was last week."

Tilden and Vance Badges.

The beautiful badges adopted by the Badge Committee will be ready to-day, and members of the Tilden and Vance Club can procure them of Mr. Frank Heartt, the treasurer, at Carmer's drug store, any time after one o'clock this afternoon.

Republican Convention of the Fourth District—Nominations.

At 12 o'clock the convention met in Metropolitan Hall. B. F. Bullock, chairman of the District Executive Committee, called the convention to order in a short speech. H. B. Guthrie, of Orange county, was made temporary chairman, and O. Hunter, col. Secretary and M. V'B. Gilbert, Assistant Secretary.

W. A. Smith and James Harris, colored, conducted the chairman to the chair, who said he knew what it was to be ostracised, as he had been ostracised in Orange county.

On motion, Guthrie was made permanent chairman.

Mr. Badger made a report of the Committee on Credentials. Every county was fully represented.

Mr. Badger moved that the convention now proceed to nominate a candidate for Congress, and nominated Col. I. J. Young, of Granville, which was seconded by Mr. Bullock. The nomination was made unanimous.

The Chair appointed a committee of two to wait on Col. Young and notify him of his nomination. L. N. B Battle, of Nash, and R. C. Badger, of Wake, were appointed.

Mr. W. A Smith nominated Isaac Strayhorn, of Orange, as elector for this District. Before a vote was taken Col Young was escorted to the stage and accepted the nomination in a short speech

Maj. Wiley Jones nominated John Mc Donald, of Chatham, for Elector.

Everything moved on harmoniously until the nominations for elector were made. Here Smith, Jones, Bullock and Harris, made speeches for their choice. When Jones wanted to speak again Harris claimed the floor. Jones cried out "cut me off! cut me off!! cut me off!!! and retired. Harris gave way to him however, and Jones gave his support again to McDonald. After he finished, Harris arose and supported Strayhorn, giving a terrible stripping to "Mack." During "Jeemes'" speech "Mack" asked him if he had not promised so late as yesterday, that he "Jeemes" would make a speech for him ("Mack") in the Convention. "Jeemes" had to take water.

Kelly Mitchell, of Chatham, arose and gave "Jeemes" fits. Williamson, col., of Franklin, supported McDonald. After which Tim Lee moved that the delegates at large for the county cast the vote for Wake county. This was objected to. Then Tim requested that the whole of the Wake county delegation retire to the rear of the hall and consult; which was done. This came near breaking up the Convention, for Wake constituted about one-third of the number present. While they were out Sam'l Watts was called on for a speech. During which the Wake delegates returned and the voting for an Elector commenced. Isaac Strayhorn received the nomination on the first ballot.

Resolutions endorsing Hayes & Wheeler were adopted.

The Executive Committee are as follows, and the chairman of the Convention, H. B. Guthrie was appointed chairman of this committee:

Chatham, Silas Burns; Franklin, B. F. Bullock, Jr.; Granville, T. L. Hargrove; Johnston, P. T. Massey; Nash, L. N. B, Battle; Orange, Lewis Jenkins: Wake, Stewart Ellison.

After the election of the committee, R. C. Badger made a speech in which he abused our sterling Congressman, Joseph J. Davis.

The Convention then adjourned.

Good job work cheaply and promptly done at the NEWS Job Office.

Pearson and Capt D C Pearson, of Burke: Col O H Dockery, of Richmond; J McDonald, of Concord; General Martin, Asheville; Hon W A Moore, Plymouth; Col J Wilkes Johnson, Halifax; Judge Mason, Chapel Hill, Gen E R Hampton, Asheville; Dr R M Norment, Robeson; Gen J W Bowman, of Mitchell; W W Rollins, of Madison; Squire Trivett, of McDowell and one hundred others, also delegates from Buncombe, Haywood, Macon, Cumberland, Madison, Guilford, Richmond, Monroe and Granville.

There is Money to Spare Yet.

A certain owner of a valuable store building on Fayetteville street was heard to say yesterday he had just been offered twenty-two thousand dollars in cash for his store by a gentleman in town. A few minutes afterwards the gentleman came up and took the owner aside and we guess the trade was made. Lots of money in Raleigh if it would only air itself.

VANCE AND VICTORY!

Grand Mass Meeting in Raleigh!!

FRIDAY, JULY 14TH, THE DAY.

By invitation of the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club of Raleigh, Hon. Zebulon B. Vance, Democratic candidate for Governor, will address the people of Wake county at the Courthouse Square in this city, on Friday, July 14th, at 11 o'clock A. M. All the other candidates will be present and address the people. Let everybody come and have an enthusiastic opening of the campaign, giving a hearty welcome to our noble leader and his associates.

Water Works in Raleigh—Different Views of Our Citizens.

Something must be done for the water works of this city. On actual measurement there are only twenty-two thousand gallons as the estimated volume of water in the public cisterns and seventeen thousand gallons of this can be discharged through the nozzle of the Rescue Steamer in ten minutes time. A fire-bell to-day can bring out fifteen hundred non producers in this town who are anxious to work, if we only had manufactories, and yet they are living here and no one knows how they live. Some of our citizens think if Crabtree and Walnut Creek were connected it would afford sufficient water power to run the machinery of a half dozen factories and furnish the city with water enough for all practical purposes. A Baltimore man was called here last year to furnish estimates to supply the city with water, and he did so. What have the City Fathers done with his report? Something must be done and that speedily. Other citizens are much in favor of an Artesian well in front of the market house. By this means we can have a fountain for man and beast and all the cisterns can be kept continually filled, by merely laying terra cotta pipes from one to the other, and from the waste pipes of the cistern we have pure and clean water continually running all through the streets. There are Artesian wells all through the South. Charleston has five. One of our citizens offers to be one of one hundred to subscribe liberally towards the experiment of having a well.

A Wren on Her Nest.

In the front portico of one of the dwellings on North street is a wire flower stand in four feet of the hall door, and on this stand is a pagoda very luxuriant in leaves of the largest size, and under the shade of these leaves a little wren has brought the moss and made a little oven of a nest and there, it is setting on six eggs, as much at home as an old lady in her rocking chair, and persons are constantly passing it by. It only shows what kindness will do not only for people but for birds. The occupants of the house are daily pitching out crumbs of bread to feed the birds that fly to the yard.

Broke His Leg.

John Nichols in Oak Grove was driving Mr. O'Neal's wagon the other day and the horse ran away and threw John out and broke his leg.

The Supreme Court Grants a Supersedeas

The Supreme Court yesterday morning, on appeal of the defendants' counsel, issued a writ of prohibition to Judge Watts, restraining him from taking any further action in the city case of Gorman vs. Manly until the further orders of the Supreme Court should be made in their behalf. They also decide to take up the case for argument on Thursday morning. Exit Sammie for the present.

A Judge in Reserve.

It is a certainty on the slate in case Judge Settle receives the nomination for Governor from the Radical Convention to-day, that ex-Judge J. W. Albertson of Perquimans county will be appointed to the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench, or if Sammy Watts gets the nomination for Secretary of State, Albertson will succeed him in the Superior Court. It would be a refreshing change indeed to get rid of Sammy.

The best campaign document is the Raleigh NEWS. All who desire Democratic success will do well to subscribe, and to get their friends to subscribe.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

A Letter From Greensboro—Severe Storm—Gen. Douglas Goes Sounding Down the Road—President Grant and Capt. Settle—Tilden and Vance in Guilford.

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 10th, 1876.

Ed. News:

The exceedingly great heat this morning forbids our writing a lengthy letter. A severe storm last night cooled the air somewhat, but this morning (9 o'clock) the thermometer stood 92° in the shade.

Politicians here are getting up steam. The radicals are running around—canvassing, I suppose—preparatory to the mongrel Convention to be held in your city on the 12th. Gen. S. A. Douglas has been to Asheboro and Reidsville, and is now up the road sounding the views of his party in this district. He is supposed to be the one to receive the Republican nomination for Congressman in the 5th district. Some of the revenue marshals and deputies, and the bankrupt solicitor are absent. Upon their return the great "administration party" will proceed to nominate their candidates. They have only one Ethiopian to represent the majority of their party in the State Convention.

I understand that President Grant says "in case Capt. Settle declines to run for Governor, he wants Col. R. M. Douglas, the United States Marshal, to be the nominee."

The Democratic-Conservative, party of Greensboro are putting up a flag pole that will measure 140 feet above the ground—taller than the Republican pole by 35 to 40 feet.

A revenue sub was heard to say a few days since, "the tallest pole would get the persimmons." It is needless to say that the Conservatives agree with him, not because we have a longer flag-pole, but because of the purity of our candidates—Tilden and Vance.

Guilford county will give a larger majority for our ticket in November than it has any Democratic ticket since the war, but we must, each and every one work for this, and every Democrat must vote, and not stay at home and think the election will go right any way.

Yours, CENTENNIAL.

They say business is dull; sugar and coffee are selling slowly. Not so with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; we understand our druggist can hardly supply the demand.

An Advertisement to Delegates.

Would it be safe to nominate a man for an office of trust like W. H. Howerton, who does not believe in the future punishment of the wicked?

THE WAR AGAINST DISEASE.—The war waged by Ho tetter's Stomach Bitters goes bravely on. Dispatches are constantly received from the cured indicating the decisive nature of the advantages obtained by the great botanic cordial over its formidable adversary. Malarial fever, constipation, torpidity of the Liver and kidneys, general debility, nervousness and rheumatic ailments invariably yield to this conqueror and preventive of disease. For the infirmities incident to the decline of life, it is also an excellent specific. It hastens convalescence and repairs the ravages of ill health by facilitating the conversion of food into blood of a rich and nourishing quality. The appetite is improved by it, and in cases of nervous disease it tranquillizes that great sensorium, the brain, far more effectually than any mineral sedative.

A month ago it was the whites—now it is the blacks.

JUDGE SETTLE will be nominated for his good looks. Judge Sam Watts runs on shape and talent.

THE Republican Convention today is little more than a representation of the negro element of North Carolina.

MR. PIERREPONT, the new minister to England from the United States, has been presented to the Queen at Windsor Castle. He must play his hand well, or be euchred as Schenck was.

THE subscription list of the NEWS is steadily increasing. This is the more gratifying, as it will be the means of disseminating far and wide over the State sound political doctrine. Democrats can not have a more valuable campaign document than the NEWS.

ANOTHER independent candidate has taken the field. This time, the disease has struck on Buncombe. A man by the name of Mark L. Read has declared himself an independent candidate for sheriff. His name is suggestive. If he will "mark, read," &c., the 16th verse of the 3d chapter of Revelations, he will perhaps turn from the way of his folly.

THE Newberne Democrat made its appearance on the 6th instant. It is published tri-weekly by S. F. Gardner, Esq., late proprietor of the Johnston Courier. In a brief, pointed salutatory, Mr. Gardner tells of his devotion to the principles of the Democratic party, and his determination to labor for the redemption of Eastern North Carolina from the grasp of the Radicals. We welcome the Democrat into the canvass and feel confident that it will do its part worthily and well in the contest before us.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

To-day witnesses the assembling of the third State Convention of the Republican party of North Carolina. The first Convention of this party, that of 1868, sowed the seeds of discord broadcast over the land: the whirlwind had been reaped when that of 1872 assembled. The revolution of 1870 had swept over the State, and the Republicans were hurled from the seats of legislative power forever. And had it not been for Federal interference and Federal money, the ticket placed in the field by the Convention of 1872, would have been defeated and Radicalism received its death-blow.

The ticket which will to day be nominated will have all the disadvantages with a few of the advantages of those of '72 and '68. In the election of 1868, thirty thousand or more Democrats were disfranchised; now, the disfranchised are but a handful. Then, a military satrap overawed some of the people with the sword: Canby's bones are mouldering in the dust, and no willing tool of a corrupt, despotic and cruel administration fills his place. The bayonet, so potent in '68, is to day a shadow and frightens nobody in this State. That weapon will not be used to sustain the Republican nominees in 1876, as in 1868.

In 1872, the purse was used instead of the sword and the bayonet. The enormous sum of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars was employed in the canvass. Now, things are changed. A check has been put upon the stealing at Washington, and money for corrupt purposes will not be so plentiful as in years gone by. Besides, owing to the change of election day in this State, the Boutwells, Delanos, and other wicked minions of a grasping and unscrupulous Administration, cannot flock down upon us to overawe, intimidate and bribe. They will be under the necessity of staying at home and looking after their own States.

The elections which placed Holden and Caldwell successively in the Gubernatorial chair revealed the fact that the main prop of the Republican party has been the power of the Federal Government. That power will be less influential in this contest than ever before, owing to the changed condition of affairs at Washington; the failure of Grant to obtain the Cincinnati nomination, which renders him lukewarm; and the Indian war, which will attract the attention of the military to the frontier.

The Republican Convention today will miss support from Administration sources sadly; and they will realize that they must in this contest rely upon themselves. Federal office-holders, who constitute the main body of this Convention, can do little without the active support and co-operation of the Administration; and, besides, the investigations going on, force them to draw in their horns somewhat. They cannot do as much mischief as heretofore. It is not a healthy season for corruptionists.

This Convention represents about 80,000 negroes and about 20,000 white men. This is the proportion of its component elements as to race. Of these whites a large proportion are office-holders—revenue men mainly. It is the spoils of office they seek. They have no principles to fight for; the main issues upon which they fought in '72 and '68 are dead. And the time for the disintegration of the party has come. It has performed its mission, and with the [illegible] ticket which they will place in the field to-day, will end negro domination forever in North Carolina.

THE CITY CASE.

The Supreme Court yesterday, upon a motion for a writ of supersedeas, ordered Judge Watts to draw in his horns and lie low until that august tribunal decided the appeal now pending before it in the city case.

The Supreme Court has acted wisely and well. It demonstrates that as the Court is to-day organized, the waves of partizan influence may beat at its doors, but can go no further; and Radical tricksters, and demagogues, must down at their bidding.

Judge Watts has acted outrageously in this matter. He was too weak to execute the commands of his party; and not bold enough to do what he knew was right. He goes to-day into the scramble for office, and like all partizan judges, he throws principle to the winds and makes for the spoils. To say that he is a disgrace to the bench is to repeat an aphorism. Words cannot express the point of degradation to which he has descended.

The conduct of the city authorities in their firmness, coolness, and moderation during all the aggravating circumstances connected with this case shows how admirably fitted they are for the high and responsible positions to which they have been elevated, and how eminently worthy the confidence which the citizens of Raleigh have bestowed upon them.

IN the Swepson trial there were exhibitions of forensic eloquence rarely excelled in this State. The learned argument of Maj. John W. Graham; the mighty effort of Col. Thomas C. Fuller; the clear, incisive speech of Mr. Levi Scott; the eloquent, impassioned appeal of Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, and the bold, earnest and ingenious closing address of Major A. M. Lewis—formed a combination of effective oratory, that alike moved court jury and spectators. The speech of our Elector-at-Large, was of peculiar excellence, and made a deep and powerful impression upon the auditors. It was brilliant, logical, and fervid, abounding with classical allusions, fine imagery, and over-mastering appeals. When that voice is lifted as earnestly in behalf of his old mother State, and her children, we may expect to hear strains of eloquence unsurpassed for beauty, pathos and power; and the wisdom of the Convention in selecting Judge Fowle to canvass the State for our ticket will be fully shown.

COL. IKE YOUNG begins his pilgrimage to the "sloughs of despond" to-day. Sure defeat awaits him in the future. Davis is bound to win this contest. We are going to watch this race closely. We have already provided ourself with a field glass, to see the prancing revenue steed, if possible, when he comes out so far behind the gallant Davis.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Bishop Havens is going to Africa—where he belongs.

The late Rev. Alfred J. Morrison was a brother of Mrs. Stonewall Jackson.

Rev. John B. Davis, President of the North Carolina College, is visiting Wilmington.

Mr. Appleton Oaksmith is highly complimented by the Beaufort Eagle for his 4th of July oration.

Major D. R. Duncan, President of the Spartanburg & Asheville railroad, has won golden opinions as a railroad man.

Beaufort Eagle: A son of Mr. A. J. Fulcher accidentally fell overboard yesterday, and as soon as he rose, Mr. D. G. Lambert plunged into the water and rescued him.

Among the killed at the battle of Little Horn, was Lieutenant Wallace, a son of A. S. Wallace, the present member of Congress from the sixth district of South Carolina.

Col. R. Barnwell Rhett, of South Carolina, formerly editor of the Charleston Mercury and afterwards of the New Orleans Picayune, has become editor-in-chief of the Charleston Journal of Commerce.

Wilson Advance: The new Methodist Church Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock the 5th inst., was the scene of one of the handsomest weddings ever known in the history of our town, in which Henry A. Foote, Esq., the able and talented editor of the Warrenton Gazette and Miss Minnie G. Young of this place, were united in the indissoluble bonds of matrimony.

A correspondent of the Concord Register writes as follows: It was Zeb Vance that received the well deserved title, during the war, of the "model Governor." It was Zeb Vance that pootected the life of W. W. Holden when death to him was apparent. It was Zeb Vance that kindly listened and and relieved, as far as possible, the widow's wail and the orphan's cry during that bloody ordeal that tried the souls of men. And it is Zeb Vance our standard bearer, that we hope and expect to see triumphantly elected over all opposition next November, and once more be the dignified occupant of the Gubernatorial Chair.

The Newbern Democrat intimates that the Craven county school fund is in jeopardy.

Mr. Hendricks was one of the few United States Senators who voted against the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution on their final passage.

The Louisiana Democrats profess to be pleased with the nomination of Marshal Packard for Governor, because he can be easily beaten. The New Orleans Picayune says the ticket is not satisfactory to the Republicans, many of whom are tired of the system of Federal interference which Packard represents.

Alabama takes the place in the election calendar which North Carolina has hitherto occupied. Under the new constitutions which both States have adopted, the latter changes the time of holding its election from August to November, and the former reverses the order and will vote for State officers on the first Monday in August. Both parties are preparing to contest Alabama, and a liberal inflation of the currency there may be expected. The quarrel between the Spencer faction and the regular wing of the Republican party gives the Democrats hope of carrying the State.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Graded School in Warrenton goes on.

Cape Lookout has been constituted a signal station.

Work on the Warrenton Railroad commenced July 7.

An unusual amount of sickness prevails in McDowell county.

Some of the citizens of Charlotte want a City Park. The Observer urges it.

An excursion train runs from Wilmington to Cleveland Springs on the 18th inst.

A boatmen's war is making things lively at Beaufort. The contention has reduced prices to a very low point.

Concord Register: The prospects for a large corn crop is splendid; seasonable rains all over the country during the past week.

Western Expositor: Sheriff Tweed of Madison arrested Weems, the wife murderer of Greene Co., Tennessee, last week in McDowell county.

Milton Chronicle: J. J. Lansdell, Esq., of Roxboro', has been appointed Clerk of the Superior Court of Person county. The appointment was occasioned by the death of Col. J. W. Hunt, the former clerk.

Warrenton Gazette: One wing of the Radicals celebrated the Centennial Fourth by a partisan political pow-wow at the Court House. Ohara was on hand, and the irrepressible Thorne talked tariff and other balder dash to a crowd of sweating patriots.

A negro fiend broke into the residence of Mr. Jas. D. Ward, a carpenter, in Wilmington, during his absence on the night of the 5th inst., and creeping into the room where Mrs. Ward was sleeping, seized her by the throat, gagged her, and violated her person. A little girl in the room was too much frightened to call for help. Mrs. Ward discharged a pistol at the scoundrel as he fled out of the yard. Lynching is entirely too good for him. We gather these particulars from the Wilmington Star.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Mark L. Read, has declared himself independent candidate for sheriff of Buncombe.

A Tilden and Vance Club has been organized in Rockingham. T. C. Leak, President.

Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, Col. Thos. S. Kenan and Maj. J. A. Engelhard will talk to the people of Currituck county and Camden, on the 15th inst.

The Washington Echo is informed by a correspondent at Edenton that Governor Vance will be present at the Democratic Executive Convention for the first district to be held in Edenton on the 20th.

Asheville Expositor: Mitchell county held a meeting last week to appoint delegates to the Old Fort Convention, and instructed their delegates to vote for Hon. R. B. Vance for Congress, as the first choice of that county.

Warrenton Gazette: The anti-Hyman party held a mass meeting in the Court House on the 4th. We did not attend, but understand speeches were made by Thorne of Warren, and O'Hara of Halifax. They were very bitter against the white people. O'Hara, we learn, is an aspirant for Congress in this District.

Wilmington Journal: Maj. Engelhard, who has been on a few days visit to his home, leaves this morning to again enter upon the campaign. We learn from the Norfolk Landmark that Major Engelhard, Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis and Col. Thos. S. Kenan will address the people of Currituck county at the county seat on Saturday, July 15th. The Landmark learns that these distinguished gentlemen are expected to pass through Norfolk on their way to their appointment, arriving in that city on Thursday, the 13th, and that the Hon. Marsdell Parks will take charge of them and convey them to Currituck by one of his steamers through the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal. The Landmark wants them to stop and stir up the Democrats of Norfolk.

TILDEN AND HENDRICKS CAMPAIGN SONG.

BY CAPT. SAM'L T. WILLIAMS.

Composed in Honor of the Raising of a Tilden and Hendricks Flag at Rocky Mount, N. C., on July 4th, 1876, and Read on the Occasion by the Author.

[Rocky Mount Mail.]

I.

We fling our banner proudly forth,
Inscribed with honored names and pure;
The East, the West, the South, the North
Will strive to make their triumph sure.
Our people have been cursed too long
With foul misrule and unjust laws
They're moving to redress the wrong,
They're moving to uphold their cause.

CHORUS.

The patriots now are gath'ring fast,
In every State they soon will swarm;
And soon we'd hear the welcome blast
Ring out for Tilden and Reform.

II.

Corruption reigns on every hand;
The rogues ne'er feel the halter draw,
But plunder our impoverished land
In time of liberty and law.
The thieves are to the White House traced
See Babcock, Belknap and the rest,
Our name at home, abroad disgraced,
And patriots blush, amazed, distressed
Chorus.

III.

Our leader is as bold a knight
As ever lifted lance or shield;
He'll guide us safely through the fight,
And drive the rascals from the field
He's honest and he's faithful too,
He'll smash the Rings where'er they're found;
He'll hold them to the public view
Disgraced, dishonored and disown'd.
Chorus.

IV.

To aid our chief the noble West
Lends to our cause her brightest star,
Her Hendricks, noblest, purest, best,
Stands by our Tilden in this war—
This war against unblushing wrong,
This war against the people's foes,
This war against the robber throng,
This war to stop the nation's woes
Chorus.

V.

Then let our banner wave on high,
Its motto streaming to the breeze,
We feel, now, that our triumph's nieh,
The fight we'll win—the victory seize.
The people in their strength will rise,
And save the land from plunder more;
Their shouts of joy will rend the skies
And echo back from shore to shore.
Chorus.

VI.

Then let each patriot join our band,
And work for honest men and true,
For Tilden and for Hendricks stand,
And strive for Vance and Jarvis too.
And when November's sun goes down,
Assuredly is our cause is just,
We'll hear the shout of triumph borne
From North to South, from East to West
Chorus.

The Late Rev. Alfred J. Morrison.

It is with much regret that we announce the untimely death of one who gave such brilliant promise of both eminence and usefulness. Mr. Morrison was quite young in years, yet [illegible] enough to show unmistakably what manner of man he was. Elected to the Legislature almost before he was by law eligible to a seat in that body, he at once took and all the while maintained a stand that would have done great honor to age and experience His political career however was of brief duration. The call to the ministry was too strong for him long to resist, and he speedily devoted his life to the service of the Master. It was never our fortune to hear him in public on but one occasion and that, it is not now unpleasant to recall, was when he was making an earnest, able and eloquent appeal to the House of Representatives for amnesty and pardon for men who in times of grievous oppression and high excitement had done violence to the majesty of the laws by taking into their own hands the inflictions of its penalties. Accidentally brought within the sound of his voice, we were held there by the force, directness and logical method with which he presented his argument and by the eloquence and earnestness with which he enforced it. He marked him then as a rising man. Brilliant indeed was the future before him, to human eyes, when he abandoned all the honors and emoluments of political and professional life to become a laborer in the vineyard of the meek and lowly Jesus. Nor was it possible for us to gain the feeling of regret that unbidden arose within us because North Carolina was about to lose to the active duties of patriotism the services of one so eminently fitted to do her honor and credit. But the end has come, and quickly and suddenly too, and we can realize that God's ways are not as our ways. What was then regarded by many as a great sacrifice will now in the light of to-day be seen to be the crowning triumph of his pure and blameless life. It was not in sickness or in old age that he chose this good part but in his youth and strength and health and just as a bright career of honor and fame were fully opened up to him. Verily it shall not be taken from him.—Wil. Journal.

Southerners in the Union Army.

In a notice of the address of Gen. D. H. Hill before the Mecklenburg (N. C.) Historical Society in the Baltimore Sun the following curious statements about the number of Southern soldiers in the Union army during the rebellion appears:

Even in the late civil war the President of the United States was a Southern born man, and the first commander-in-chief, whose plan for the subsequent conduct of the war was probably that which was finally successfully acted on, was a Virginian. Next to Grant and Sherman, whose leading military conceptions were, perhaps, derived from General Scott, the most successful Union Generals were Southern men, viz: Thomas, Canby, Blair. Sykes, Meade, Getty, Anderson, Alexander, Nelson, &c. General Hill declares that the stubborn resistance of General Thomas at Chickamauga and the refusal of Andrew Johnson to give up Nashville, as Buell directed, dug the grave of the Confederacy. Farragut, of Tennessee, rose to the highest rank in the navy. The naval forces at Hatteras were under the command of Goldsborough, of Maryland. Gen. Hill is of opinion that the South furnished as many troops to the Union as did the populous North. At any rate there were no better soldiers in the Union service. Missouri gave 108,793 soldiers to the United States, Kentucky 92,000, and Maryland, 47,930. Other Southern States contributed in greater or less degree. In all there were 400,000 native-born Southerners in the Union service. This does not include the 250,000 negro troops."

Death of a Veteran Revolutionist.

[Norfolk Landmark.]

General Santa Anna died on the 24th ultimo, at the City of Mexico. Like all the Mexican Generals he was turbulent in temper and a born revolutionist; but, unlike the most of them, he was a man of superior ability. He had a fancy that he was an American edition of the great Corsican and played Napoleon to the best of his ability. He was successful in this role until he encountered Sam Houston, and after him General Taylor. These gave him his Lipsic and his Waterloo, on a small scale it is true, but in a very conclusive manner. He was born in 1798 and was consequently 78 years old at the time of his death. The time was when he appeared as a very robust actor on the scene of affairs on this continent, but since '55 he has been little better than a shadow of the past. He was undoubtedly an able man, but the elements by which he was surrounded were such as to render any permanent success on his part impossible. Perhaps the most remarkable thing in his career was the fact that through the various revolutions in which he participated he managed to escape the fusilade of a firing party.

Let Him Slide.

[Wilson Advance.]

We learn from the Messenger that L. W. Humphery has gone over body and soul to the Radical party. This is no more than we expected. His first step towards Radicalism was, when he bolted the nomination of Governor Vance for United States Senate. He outraged the sentiments of his constituents then, and now his own conscience is seared for full fellowship with Radicalism. Colonel Humphrey has already been rewarded with a railroad presidency by a Republican Governor, and no doubt has an eye on a seat in Congress at the hands of his civil rights brethren His departure is a happy riddance. The Democratic party is no place for a white man who is willing to sacrifice his country and everything for office. The Radical party is the place for all such so long as the negros will be stupid enough to give them the offices.

Modern Women.

It is a sad commentary upon our boasted civilization that the women of our times have degenerated in health and physique until they are literally a race of invalid,—pale, nervous, feeble, and back-achy, with only her and there a few noble exceptions in the persons of the robust, buxom ladies characteristic of the sex in days gone by. By a very large experience, covering a period of years, and embracing the treatment of many thousands of cases of those ailments peculiar to Women, Dr. Pierce, of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., has perfected, by the combination of certain vegetabe extracts, a natural specific, which he does not extol as cure-all, but one which admirably fulfils a singleness of purpose, being a most positive and reliable remedy for those weaknesses and complaints that afflict the women of the present day. This natural specific compound is called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The following are among those diseases in which this wonderful medicine has worked cures as if by magic and with a certainty never before attained by any medicines: Weak back, nervous and general debility, falling and other displacements of internal organ resulting from debility and lack of strength in natural supports, internal fever, congestion, inflamation, and ulceration and very many other chronic diseases incident to women, not proper to mention here, in which as well as in the cases that have been enumerated, the Favorite Prescription effects cures—the marvel of the world. It will not do harm in any state or condition of the system, and by adopting its use the invalid lady may avoid that severest of ordeals—the consulting of the family physician. Favorite Prescription is sold by dealers in medicines generally.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Cabinet--Blaine Improving--Grant and Taft--Pratt has Resigned--The Don--The Convention of Israelites, &c.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Navy and Postoffice Department was not represented in the cabinet to-day.

Blaine's friends here have advices that his doctors hope for a speedy and permanent restoration. The Judiciary Committee have decided to postpone the Blaine bond investigation until next fall.

The President has had Judge Taft's concurrence in every thing he has done. Taft has no intention of resigning.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Pratt has resigned.

Don Carlos has gone northward.

The Convention of the Israelites assembled at the Willard Hotel this morning. One hundred delegates were present, the majority of whom arrived last night.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Loth, the President of the Convention. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. Lessing of Peoria. Mr. L. Silberman, of Chicago, was appointed temporary chairman. Mr. Swartz of Selma, was made temporary secretary.

A committee on credentials and on permanent organizations was appointed and reported seventy-three congregations represented. S. Wolf of this city was elected President of the Convention and Mr. Levy of Cincinnati, Secretary. Committees were appointed. Adjourned to nine o'clock to-morrow.

Pratt's resignation takes effect first of August. Grant nodded at him and he resigned like a man.

Jewell Shines in on the Committee--He Came from Connecticut and Can't Carry Indiana.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Jewell was before the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads. He had turned over all the cases of violations of law in his Department to the Attorney General for prosecution. He was disappointed at the small result of the prosecutions, and regretted there were so few convictions, but was powerless beyond turning the cases, and papers and evidence over to the authorities. Jewell would decline giving conversations with the Cabinet officers or reasons for removal beyond general ones.

Q: "Was your resignation forced or voluntary?"

A.: "Well, the President notified me my resignation would be acceptable, and I tendered it."

"Were there any charges preferred against you?"

"No, sir; not that I am aware of."

It has transpired that changes in the cabinet were made for political reasons, as it was supposed it would strengthen the Republicans in Indiana to have a citizen of that State in the cabinet while nothing was to be gained in Connecticut by retaining Mr. Jewell. The change was in accordance with Morton's views. Mr. Morton had a long interview with the President yesterday and the new Postmaster General had a conference with him to-day after the Cabinet meeting.

A Committee to Wait on Tilden and Hendricks.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Democratic Announcement Committee met to-day in secret session in the Fifth Avenue Hotel to arrange for the ratification of Gov. Tilden and of his nomination. Gen. McClernand presided and a quorum of the committee was present. The Committee decided to proceed to Albany in a body and notify Gov. Tilden of his nomination. A suitable address was drawn up by the sub-committee, to be delivered by the chairman of his nomination. The committee to wait on Tilden will start at 3:30 this p. m. for Albany. The committee also decided to notify Gov. Hendricks and a sub-committee consisting chiefly of western men were appointed to call on the candidate for Vice President and notify him of his nomination.

The Servians Fight a Superior Force.

BELGRADE, July 11th.—An official dispatch announces that the Turks have withdrawn from the right bank of the river Drina. The Servian army of Timock has occupied several villages and reconnoitered the country of Widden, to which place the Turks have retreated. The population of the District of Widden have risen and joined the Morava Division of the Servian army

General Beniffan fought a superior force of Turks seven hours on the 7th inst., at Konohevas.

The Hamburg Rioters on Trial.

AUGUSTA July 11.—A number of witnesses was examined in the Hamburg riot case to-day and the inquest proceedings have not yet concluded. The Adjutant General and Attorney General of the State were present by order of Governor Chamberlain but left for Columbia this evening. Gen. M. C. Butler who was in command of the whites during the fight is in Columbia.

Turkish War Notes.

It is said the Turks have forty thousand men in and around Nisa, and the French forces are being constantly despatched from Contstantinople. The troops are full of enthusiasm.

The fanatical feeling of the Turks is fully aroused against the Servians and they can expect no mercy if beaten.

The Servians are drawing all their forces to Tchemayoff's army.

The latest reports say that fighting is now going on around Nisa.

A conflict between Austria and Russia is apprehended, growing out of Andrassy's hatred of the Sclaves.

Tchez Cam Dmpoly and Dismissed--The Poor Newspaper Men Get Hurt.

LONDON, July 11.—It is reported that Tchemayoff is returning from the Servian frontier, his army demoralized and Tchemayoff dismissed. Party paper correspondents on the frontier were taken for spies and fired on by the Servians and one was killed and two were wounded. Among them was a reporter of a British journal.

The Servians Driven Into Austria.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 11.—The Porte has sent the following to Representatives abroad: In an engagement of five hours duration at Soboskadi in the District of Bolgradzk the Servians numbering 2,000 were beaten and pursued to the Servian territory. The Turks captured a quantity of war amunition. After an engagement of two hours duration at Sabine, in Bosnia, the Servians were driven into Austria.

The Servian General.

PARIS, July 11.—Several journals here publish intelligence that the Turks have captured Zaitschar, and that the Servian General Tchemaeff is at Hemmedin, between the two Turkish armies marching from Widden and Sophia. Intelligence received at Semlin, states the position of the Servian General at Antich, near Novi Bazar, is threatening.

Grant Has a Little Word for Jewell

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Recently the Postmaster General Jewell authorized the statement that he had no other explanation than to remain in office until the 4th of March. Yesterday the Postmaster General called on the President on business and was informed his resignation would be acceptable. He immediately wrote it.

Why Taft Resigns--Tyner Will Succeed Jewell.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—It is reported that Taft has resigned because Grant removed the District Attorney Dyer, of Missouri, without consulting the Attorney General. Judge J. N. Tyner, now second assistant Postmaster-General, will succeed Jewell.

An Old Lady Who Liked the Boys.

BALTIMORE, July 11.—Miss Jane Bay, who died last week, aged 73, bequeathed $25,000 to the Jane Bay Home for Boys.

Hot in New York and No Rain for a Month.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A number of additional deaths from sunstrokes today. The first signs of rain to-day for a month.

Stealing Railroad Bonds.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Sixteen thousand dollars worth of railroad bonds have disappeared from the vaults of the Safe Deposit Company on Broadway and Cedar Street.

Our Boys in Egypt.

A Sun Slaughter in the Cities.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—There were four deaths here to-day from heat; 42 in New York and 14 in Baltimore.

Sunstrokes in Canada.

TORONTO, July 11.—Many fatal sunstrokes here to-day and elsewhere in Canada.

THE OLD NORTH STAT

Vegetable Stomach Bitters,

PRIPARED BY

C. G. LANIER.

HICKORY, N. C.

In offering to the public for their use and relief the

Old North State Vegetable Stomach Bitters,

I feel no hesitancy in saying this is the purest and best article ever offered them.

I warrant each bottle to contain NO chemical whatever—nothing but the best vegetable preparation, (See recommendation of physicians,) and the purest Domestic Whiskey.

In preparing this excellent tonic I have spared no pains or cost to make it just what I recommend it to be—

The Very Best Tonic ever offered to Invalids and Others, and without the usual cry of "Encourage Home Enterprise," I would say to all the suffering—Throw away the filthy and worthless drugs sold you heretofore by would be "all cures," and try one bottle of

THE OLD NORTH STATE BITTERS,

and if then you will say you have not been benefitted by its use, I will return to all such their money.

OLD NORTH STATE BITTERS
